

Angela G. Reyes, MPH, is the founder and Executive Director of the Detroit Hispanic Development Corporation and a founding board member of the Detroit URC since 1995. She has been actively engaged in a number of community-based participatory research partnerships using mixed methods. She has been active in community organizing efforts in Southwest Detroit for over 30 years. Ms. Reyes is the recipient of several awards, including Corp! Magazine's Michigan's Most Influential Hispanic Leaders, New Detroit's Closing the Gap award, and the Detroit Metropolitan Bar Association Liberty Bell Award. Ms. Reyes is known nationally and internationally as a consultant and speaker on issues affecting the Latino community, including cultural awareness, youth gangs and violence, immigration, and education reform.